In one of his first games on the hardwood and three days practice, Jeremy Chappelle gave the Brook Hill fans and head coach, Wally Dawkins a taste of things to come although it was in a losing effort.

The Brook Hill Guard, in a back-and-forth match up on Friday morning, lost the second game of the Burger King Classic, 86-83, to a talented Clarksville team.

DeCarlos Williams led Clarksville (2-1) with 16 points. Demontrae Scales and H.B. Rosser added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Jeremy Chappelle led the Guard (3-2) with 14 points and 10 rebounds.

Also adding in for Brook Hill were guards, Andre Huang and Mason Spradlin adding nine and eight points, respectively.

Courtney Thomas added

nine rebounds and three blocks to his six points for Brook Hill, while Heath Dickey, another football recruit, snagged seven rebounds and added four points in the paint.

Former longtime Whitehouse coaching guru Wally Dawkins and his Guard, provided a stiff test for the Tigers, and was pleased overall with the showing with such little time to work with the football players.

"We played the other night after one practice and it was pretty ugly," said Dawkins about the effort. "But the new kids are really starting to pick up the way we do things, and although we lost to Clarksville, we did some good things to build on, and it has been nice getting some size inside to help Courtney (Thomas) out."

The Guard will entertain Tenaha in a game on Tuesday night before playing in the Huntington Tournament beginning on Thursday and running through Saturday.

LONGVIEW - The Guard was finally in full gear last week as the football players, turned basketball players to join in for a 64-53, win over Trinity Christian at Titan gymnasium last Tuesday night.

Brook Hill (3-1), was led in scoring by postman, Courtney Thomas with 20 points inside, adding eight rebounds, while Collin Hanks nailed two, three-pointers and totaled out with 16 points.

Jeremy Chappelle showed highlights of things to come in limited time, scoring 15 points and grabbing nine rebounds for the Guard.

"We are just now getting the whole team out there together but for a first game, and just a few days practice, I

State ranked Panthers hit ice-slick in Ferris

FERRIS - It was a cold Tuesday night both outside and on the basketball floor for the Bullard Panther inside Yellowjacket gymnasium, as Bullard lost their first game of the year with a 69-48 loss at the hands of a sharp-shooting, Ferris squad.

The 15th-ranked Panthers at the time, just could not get a shot to fall, and turnovers were the downfall according to head coach Hank Hargraves.

"We have still got a lot of players getting their legs, and we are making a lot of mental mistakes," Hargraves said. "But I think we'll be alright after we get everybody with the program and healthy."

Daniel Howard led the Panthers with 10, first half points but the Panthers trailed 41-19.

Howard finished the game with 18 points, while Brandon Beavers added 11-points and eight rebounds. All-State prospect, Lance Anding was held in check with only one three-pointer, and six points in the loss.

In the second half, the Panthers fridge touch continued scoring only six-points in the third period to fall behind, 53-25.

The Panthers fought back to outscore the Yellowjackets, 21-16 in the final stanza but it was too little, too late.

The Panthers will entertain Pine Tree on Tuesday night. For the story and stats, see next week's edition of the Banner News Sports.
