UNIVERSITY PARK - The Guard (7-1, 3-0 TAPPS Div. III-District 2) enjoyed the bright lights of Ford Stadium on the SMU campus Friday night as they embarrassed a No. 4 ranked Dallas Lutheran Lions 55-9, before a huge crowd.

The battle of the top-ranked teams turned in to a war in the trenches that made the difference.

That and the 'Triple-Threat Review' of two-way all-stars, senior Jeremy Chappelle, junior Tyler Baker, and sophomore J.B. Moss.

Lutheran (6-2, 3-0) made a brief attempt at a Halloween trick, with the first score of the game.

Brook Hill then broke out the treats in the easily won game by the No. 2 ranked Guard.

Coming into the game, Lutheran had missed running back Grant Klembara for a few games, but along with quarterback Ben Hartley, the duo had combined for 2,020 yards and 27 scores on the ground.

The two accounted for 192-yards on the ground while the Guard rolled up 657 combined yards to cruise to the league-clincher.

Not really a clincher, but a winless Flower-Mound-Coram Deo is way too many prayers away from a win.

Guard quarterback, Tyler Baker ran and scored, threw and scored and tackled a bunch of ins in-between.

Baker ran for 70-yards, and threw for another 219-yards

Vastly becoming a show in himself is J.B. Moss as he and Baker share time at quarterback-receiver-, kickers, and spirited late quarter water boys.

Moss ran amuck for 135 yards to lead all Guard ball toters, added a 3-of-4 for 86 yards and one interception in the air while at signal-caller, and caught a Baker pass for a 17-yard gain.

Jeremy Chappelle had another Division I type night with six catches for 232 yards, and two long scores of 68 and 25-ayrders.

The last from Travis Pirtle as he threw 3-for-3 and 47 yards

Aside from that, a dominant line performance out of Heath Dickey, Tallen Harris, Justin Northcutt, Matthew Ruark, and Jonathan Jones supplied the room for six Guard ball carriers

Defensively, Dickey joined linebackers Harris and 'little-big' brother, Jared Dickey as they combined for 21 tackles.

UIL sets new playoff policy for smaller schools

AUSTIN (AP) — State championship football games will have predetermined sites in all Texas high school classifications starting next year.

The University Interscholastic League's Legislative Council voted recently to have fixed sites in classes 1A through 4A.

The state's largest classification, 5A, is in the third year of having both title games at the same site.

Below 5A, coaches still determine championship game sites either by mutual agreement or a coin flip, just as they do through each round of the playoffs. UIL officials say they haven't decided whether games will be played at the same site.

Under the current playoff format, the largest-school Division I championship games for classes 3A, 2A and 1A are a week earlier than the title games in the small-school Division II.

Also starting in 2010, Class 2A will be split into large-school and small-school divisions before the season starts.

Currently, that process takes place before the playoffs.

Pictured above is Dillon White, age 13, a Bullard Middle School eighth-grader who recently competed and completed the Rose City Triathlon in Tyler. White too second-place in his age division, competing with father, Chris White of the Cherokee County Sheriff's Office. The race consisted of one-half mile swim, 14 1/2-mile bike race, and a three-mile run. Congrats to Dillon and Dad, and thanks for the good work Officer White. Dillon is also a stand-out on the BMS football team.
