

BH boys cruise to 81-48 win

Will face Dallas Shelton Friday

Rachael Roeten
news@bullardnews.com

Brook Hill's boys' basketball team crushed Dallas Lutheran at home 81-48 Friday night coming off a loss Tuesday, Jan 17.

The Guard jumped out to a 20-11 lead at the end of the 1st quarter and continued the fury for the rest of the game. By halftime, Brook Hill increased their lead to 50-27. The Guard had a 68-29 lead going into the final quarter which enabled head coach Wally Dawkins to give a few of the younger players some valuable playing time.

Carter Clements was the big score for Brook Hill having a great all-over night with a career high 21 points, five rebounds, four steals, and two 3-pointers. Austin Langemeier scored high teens with 17 points and five rebounds.

Freshmen Chase McDermott scored 11 points with four steals and four rebounds for the Guard while Grant Hanks scored ten with five assists. Jared Dickey earned eight points and six rebounds while Phillip Kitt scored five and Tyler Burton had three.

Brook Hill played a disappointing showing against Richardson Canyon Creek Tuesday, Jan. 17, losing 38-48.

The Guard trailed 22-19 going into halftime at Canyon Creek before shooting a merely 14 percent from the court in the second half resulting in the loss.

Langemeier was the only Guard to break into double figures with 14 points, two 3-pointers, and eight rebounds.

Hanks score eight points, two 3-pointers, and five assists for the night. Clements scored five points and found four rebounds while Andrew Swink scored three points for the Guard.

Burton, McDermott, Kitt, and Dickey all scored two points with Dickey finding six rebounds and Kitt having five.

Brook Hill is now tied for second place with Garland Christian, both with a 3-2 record. The Guard are 11-11 overall in the season.

The Guard were scheduled to travel to Garland Tuesday, Jan. 24 for a rematch with the Swordsmen after Brook Hill won in early January, 42-40. They then return to the Metroplex Friday to face the league-leading Dallas Shelton at 7:30.

Brook Hill's Austin Langemeier penetrates and then passes off as the Guard defeated Dallas Lutheran 81-48 Friday. At right, Carter Clements gets an easy bucket. The Guard will next face the league-leading Dallas Shelton on Friday. PHOTOS BY RACHAEL ROETEN

Bullard rattles Rusk, 82-35; improves to 1-1 in district

Rachael Roeten
news@bullardnews.com

Bullard boys basketball team bumped up their intensity for a huge win over Rusk at home Friday, 82-35, taking their district record to 1-1 after a close loss Tuesday by two points.

Spreading the scoring across the Bullard roster, 12 Panthers scored against Rusk dominating the court. Taft Rose led the team with 19 points. David Heithoff also broke into double figures scoring 12 for Bullard.

Blayne Noble scored eight while Scott Lowrie, Tyler Grabski, and Chandler Clark all earned seven points each. To continue the scoring, Johnathon Bell found five points along with Corbin Howard.

Jaime McClenny scored four while Blake Rutherford and Cameron Hallford scored three. Taylor McIntyre got on the board with two points all leading towards the Bullard victory Friday.

"The guys were fueled by an awesome student section and played great defense. We turned out our best offensive game of the year as well," head coach Shane Chambless said.

Bullard took their first district loss against Brownsboro in a close matchup with only two points separating the two teams' final scores.

Lowrie and Rose both scored 16 points a piece to lead the Panthers in scoring.

Clark earned six points while Howard and Grabski both scored five each for Bullard.

The Panthers let this game slip away with a low shooting percentage with Brownsboro earning several of their points off offensive rebounds.

Bullard was scheduled to play Chapel Hill Tuesday, Jan. 24 for another district game and then again Friday, Jan. 27 at Athens. Next Tuesday, Jan. 31 is an open game day for the Panthers.

At left, Bullard's David Heithoff scores two in the paint. PHOTO COURTESY SUSIE MOORE

GIRLS MIDDLE SCHOOL HOOPS

Thursday, Jan. 19
BH 8th vs. All Saints 8th:
BH: 9 2 13 5 = 29
AS: 6 4 4 2 = 16

BH: Charlie Niles 11 (1 3-pointer), Morgan Moss 8 (1 3-pointer), Alyssa Bennett 6, Karina Redfern 4

All Saints: K. Rhodus 6, F. Clyde 6, S. Bracken 2, E. Evans 2

BH Record: 7-1; 4-0 in District

+++
BH 7th vs. All Saints 7th:
BH: 13 4 8 0 = 25
AS: 0 0 4 7 = 11

BH: Brianna Young 11, Lauren Eden 9, AD Kuechle 3 (3-pointer), Maddie Anthony 2

All Saints: H. Huckabee 5, N. Klouda 2, M. Bickham 2, H. Jennings 2

BH Record: 7-2; 4-0 in District

Next Game: @ Grace - Monday, Jan. 22nd

Lady Panthers roll over Rusk, Brownsboro

Rachael Roeten
news@bullardnews.com

Bullard's girl's basketball team killed Rusk in a Friday night game that demonstrated their dominance over district.

The Lady Panthers took an early lead and never let it get close again ending with a victory of 73-33 closing the first half of district with all wins.

Bullard has only four more district games left in the season sitting nice with a 4-0 record.

Minta Spears earned 31 points for Bullard while Rachel Horton scored a 20 for the night.

Savannah Pinion scored eight for the Lady Panthers while Kylee Nichols earned six. Seven of the Lady Panthers scored with Emily Voyles sinking four points and Chelsie Southerland and Samantha

Minta Spears lines up a shot. PHOTO BY RACHAEL ROETEN

Cummins both found two each.	Rusk	4	6	14	9	33
	Bullard	27	23	13	10	73

Bullard also won in a closer contest over Brownsboro Tuesday, Jan. 17 away, 55-42.

Spears led the fight against Brownsboro with 27 points. Horton broke into the double digits as well earning 12 points for the Lady Panthers.

Nichols scored eight, Heather Anding five, and Cummins two to help lead Bullard to a victory on the road.

The Lady Panthers were scheduled to face Chapel Hill at home Tuesday, Jan. 24 for their Coaches vs. Cancer game followed with Friday's game in Athens, Jan. 27. Next Tuesday, Jan. 31 is an open game day for Bullard.

Brownsboro	11	13	8	10	42
Bullard	14	13	11	17	55

Build On Your Lot
BOYL
1-855-On Your Lot

From $53 per Sq. Ft. at time of print

U.S. Baseball Academy
Six weeks of hitting, pitching, catcher, and fielding baserunning lessons as low as $99. Sessions start soon.

Nation's largest training program, Early Registration
Presented by Wilson/DeMarini Discounts!
Register Now, Pay Later. Sessions for Grades 1-12

Space is limited. Phone (866) 622-4487 or visit www.USBaseballAcademy.com

Alyssa Eden goes for a layup. PHOTO BY RACHAEL ROETEN

BH girls challenge Lutheran

Rachael Roeten
news@bullardnews.com

The Lady Guard took on the #6 team in the state, Dallas Lutheran, Friday, Jan. 20, dropping the game 30-48.

The Guard stayed close until the end of the game when they fouled the visiting Lutheran team and they made seven straight free-throws.

Samantha Anderson had 16 points and nine rebounds while Riley Williams had five points, 13 rebounds and three assists. Alyssa Eden added nine points to Brook Hill's attempt.

Tuesday, Jan. 17, the Lady Guard took on #19 in the state, Canyon Creek, falling short with a score of 36-16.

The Lady Guard tried several things, including a slow-down offense, but nothing seemed to work. "We thought we were prepared but I take responsibility for the loss," head coach Ricky Clements said. "I tried some things and they didn't work."

Williams had seven points and seven rebounds while Anderson had six points and nine rebounds.

The Lady Guard were scheduled to travel to Garland Christian on Tuesday, Jan. 24 and then to Dallas Shelton Friday, Jan. 27. The Lady Guard are now 9-8 on the season and 2-3 in district play.